Look on page 8 of this issue for our

GET ACQUAINTED

advertisement

SOMERS

PERFECT SIGHT can not con from GLASSES not correctly fitted I make and fit them correctly. We have every good make and style mountings, including the KEELOCK cement mounting that does not work

J. F. MARCH

10 Broadway Phone 1312

DR. SHAHAN

Marian Block, 326 Main St. Practice .limited. to. Diseases of the Stomach and Rheumatism 2-4 and 7-8 p. m. Tel. 8°1 Morning hours by appoint-Tel. 8º1

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLIN TEACHER

All String Instruments repaired Violins sold on easy terms For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Nor-

Most every girl is wearing one of these most popular Bracelets. Why not YOU? Come in and start one nov

They cost but 250 per link. When you get enough for a bracelet we link them together free of charge. The engraving is also gratis.

Established 1872

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO.

PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING Look for the street clack.

Hall Mark, Farm House and Quality Folks Chocolates a year. Best ever

at RALLION'S

The Famous PIEL BROS.

Real German Lager Beer is on draught at H. JACKEL & CO.

American House

FARREL & SANDERSON, Propi Special Rates to Theatre Troupes, Traveling Men, Etc. Livery Connection, Shetucket Street

> Telephone 762 New London-Norwich Dye Works 33 Broadway

> > Auto at your service

GEORGE G. GRANT Indertaker and Embalmer 12 Providence St., Taftville

Frompt attention to day or night calls Telephone 630. apr14MWFaw1

WHEN YOU WANT to put your bus ness before the public, there is no pedium better than through the adertisingscolumns of The Bulletin

Obe Bulletin

Norwich, Wednesday, Aug. 18, 1915

VARIOUS MATTERS

The corn-roast season is beginning Block Island visitors are having Cool weather Tuesday sent a num-ber of local people to the Williman-tic Camp meeting.

The high shrub hydrangeas are coming into bloom and promise to be unusually large and shapely this sea-Wesley-B. Porter has sold his island camp at Williams pond in Exeter to John Jensen. The sale includes cabin, furnishings and boats.

Local dentists are greatly interested in the provisions of the new state law on the practice of dentistry, copies of which have been received by them. At 8 o'clock Tuesday, in St. Patrick's church, a month's mind high mass of requiem for Daniel Sullivan was sung by the rector, Rev. John H. Broderick.

To the loan exhibit collected by Lu-cretia Shaw chapter, D. A. R., of New London, George S. Palmer is the larg-est contributor, sending his priceless collection of old silver.

A former Ledyard pastor, Rev. E. White of the Congregational church is spending a few days with his son, Emmons White, who is supplying a summer pastorate near Brattlebro, Vt.

At an opening meeting of Farmington grange, August 25, a demonstra-tion of canning will be given by Miss Sprague of Storrs. Canning peaches and corn will occupy the allotted Thursday, the camp meeting of the Life and Advent church is to be-gin at Tylesville on the Connecticut river. An attendance of 150 to 200 from this and other states is ex-pected.

The quarterly meeting of the min-isters of the Advent Christian Church of Connecticut and Massachusetts was held at Dunham's grove, Plainville, on

An old fashioned evangelist camp meeting will take place near Jordan cemetery, Waterford, beginning Sun-day, and will last seven days. The Rev. Isaac Watkins, colored, will have chve charge.

Mrs. John Rathbone, of Bozrah omes to the front with August strawberries as big and luscious as in June. The day is coming when we may have strawberry shortcake in

The Eighth regiment, C. V., is to hold its reunion September 17 at City Hal, in Hartford. The date is the anniversary of the battle of Antietam, in which the regiment took part and also of Battle Flag Day. (Septembe 17, 1879.)

All but one of the ten children of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Guilford, of Torrington, were present at the golden wedding anniversary on Saturday. They included Mrs. Edith White of fitckville. The absent son was Harry of Honolulu.

A former Willimantic clergyman, Rev. Oliver T. Magnell, of Wethers-field, an editor of the Catholic Transcript, has left for Toledo, Ohio, to at-tend the national convention of the Catholic Press association, of which

At Columbia, a letter was read Sunday from Rev. Frederick M. Hollister of Mystic to whom a call had been extended by the Columbia Congregational church to become its pastor, in which Mr. Hollister for various reasons declines to accept.

In the swimming contest on Beach day at Oswegatchie, Saturday, Albert Senft, Jr., the 16 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Senft of 56 Boswell avenue, Norwich, won the silver cup ming a mile in 35 minutes.

A number of local manufacturers were notified Tuesday that the first week beginning September 20 at the 3rand Central Palace, New York.

Rumsdell men are at work at Fort Terry, repairing and making additions to the post laundry. During the vis-ts of the New York guardsmen the aundry has been so taxed for space that important additions will be necessary before their visit next year.

Following a tour of inspection by of ficials of the N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. the tonage on each freight train drawn by a single_engine has been increased from 2,300 tons to 2,700 tons. Thus six trains, with the additional ton-nage save the hauling of a seperate train.

The United States commission an nounces for September 22 a competi-tive examination for moldmaker (in ceramics), for men only to fill sev-eral vacancies in the Bureau of Standards. Department of Commerce at salaries ranging from $1020 to $1200

St. Rose's new parochial school, in New Haven, is fortunate in having secured as its superioress. Sister Con-cella, one of the best known educa-tors in the state, who has held similar positions in Norwich, Danbury, Hart-ford and New Haven, says the Catho-

The wedding of Miss Alice Cooper Stanton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John G. Stanton of New London, and Harrison Tween Sheldon of New Haven, will take place Thursday after-noon at 2 o'clock at the old home of Miss Stanton's mother at Amherst.

Norwich people who read New York papers looked in vain for details of the taking of Leo Frank from the Georgia iall, Tuesday morning, after The Bulletin had told the story. The mail editions of the city papers had no mention of the matter, The Bulletin's telegraph operator getting the dispatch at 2.30 a. m.

LEAVE FOR NOVA SCOTIA.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Ambier Start for Acadia University-Other Members of College Staff.

Prof. Joseph A. Ambler and Mrs. Ambler (Flossie B. Holloway) left Norwich Tuesday afternoon for Boston. They will sail today for Nova Scotia, where Professor Amber begins his third year as professor of chemistry at Acadia university Wolfvilla try at Acadia university, Wolfville.

Prof. and Mrs. Ambler will occupy shelr newly-furnished house in Wolf-Wille.

Wile.

Other members of the Acadia college faculty are Francis R. Haley, dean of the department of applied science, whose wife was Miss Wilcox, of Norwich, and Ralph P. Clarkson, Ivan Curry professor of engineering, who married Miss Ayer, of Franklin.

The electrical conductivity of copper depends on the total amount of impurities therein.

PERSONALS

W. E. Woods has been in New York

Miss Ina Sevay of East Norwich is visiting friends in New London. Miss Jennie Myra of Eastern Point bassed Sunday with Norwich friends.

Mrs. Ada Kerrins of Noank is spending a few days with friends in Norwich Town.

Frank Beckwith has returned to his home in Norwich, after spending two weeks in Niantic.

John Gaffney McNamarra of New York city is passing a vacation at his home in this city.

Mrs. James G. Brayton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Florence F. Funn Mrs. F. H. Partridge and daughter

Alice, of Jewett City, are at Nan-sauket Beach, R. I. Charles E. Hazelhurst of Waterbury is spending his vacation at his former home in this city. Miss Mary Hust, who has been for several weeks in Meriden, is at her home in Thamesville.

Mrs. James Balfour Connell of Montville is visiting her son, James W. Connell, of Middletown.

Miss Ruth Shipman of Waterford is the guest of her brother, Frederick A. Shipman of Hartford. Mrs. Dennis Shay and son John of New York are visiting Mrs. E. R. Ed-wards of Hinckley street.

Sidney Chappell of Norwich has been in Old Saybrook, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clark.

Mrs. Alexander Jordan of Norwich has been the guest of Mrs. Laura Wil-liams at Groton Long Point.

Miss Abbie Sheehan of Norwich spent the week end at Groton Long Point with Miss Laura Fields. Mr. and Mrs. John S. Smith have returned to Noank, after a week's visit with relatives in North Franklin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerimah Fiets of East Orange, N. J., spent the week end with relatives on Lafayette street. Miss Ruth Isham has returned to Columbia, after spending several days with friends at Groton Long Point.

Mrs. John H. Dewey and son, Master Mason Dewey, of Washington, D. C., are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Louis T.

Mrs. Frank Marquis of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is spending the summer in town, has returned from two weeks' stay in New York.

Mrs. Bartlett B. Miner and daughter Ethel, of Hartford, are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. McNickle of River avenue. George L. Yeomans of Lafayette street was in Baltic Saturday, at-tending the funeral of Mr. Nolan, whose father he has known for over

Miss Jane Swift will spend the re-mainder of her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Swift, of Torrington, after spending some time in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Arnold, of Pittsburgh, Penn., are spending a portion of their honeymoon with Mr. Arnold's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Ar-nold, of Cliff street, Mrs. Henry B. Osgood, now of Chicago, and her son, Franklyn, who have been in Niantic for two weeks, will spend this week at Mrs. Joseph Robinson's, East Lyme

Miss Elizabeth Hull of Springfield, Mass, who is at her home on Wil-liams street for her vacation, has re-turned from an automobile trip to the daine coast and is now vi tives in Jewett City.

A party from Norwich and Jewett City enjoyed an outing to Watch Hill the first of the week. Those going from Norwich were Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Coughlin, Mrs. Margaret But-A number of local manufacturers were notified Tuesday that the first public exposition of the work and products of the chemical industires of the United States will take place in the week beginning September 20 at the Francis Coughin, Mrs. Margaret Eutton, and daughter Francis, Miss May Casey, Misses Annie and Edith Mc-Avoy, Miss Jessie Peterson, Andrew and John Peterson, John Evans and Elmer Johnson. From Jewett City were ames Coffey and Miss Grace.

Camping Party at Pleasant View. Miss Ida Adams, Mrs. Daisy Mor-ison and Miss Alice Kennedy have returned from Pleasant View, where they were members of a camping party at "Kum Inn." There were nine girls with Mrs. S. N. Morgan of Colchester as chaperon, besides several week end guests The other members of the party included Miss Julia and May Poste of Middletown, Miss Maud Clarke of East Hampton, Miss Mabel Hiscox, Miss Kathryn Morgan and Miss Lucy Phelps of Colchester.

CARDINZA TO REJECT NEW PEACE PROPOSALS. Will Seek to Obtain Recognition of

His Government, Washington, Aug. 17.—General Crransa within a few days will reply to the Pan-American appeal to Mexico, it was learned here tonight. He will reject the peace conference proposal urged by Secretary Lansing and Latin-American diplomats and, it is reported, will suggest that the conferees use their influence to obtain recognition their influence to obtain recognition for his government from their respective republics.

According to his friends here Carranza appreciated the friendly tone of ranza appreciated the friendly tone of the Pan-American appeal. He has consulted his civil and military asso-ciates regarding it and has communi-cated with Eliseo Arredondo, Wash-ington representative and other agents of his cause in the United States. As a result of these conferences, it is de-clared that the general has determined to make a courteous reply, giving in detail his reasons for rejecting the conference plan and advancing arguconference plan and advancing argu-ments in an effort to convince the conferees that recognition of the Carmin-ma government is warranted and nec-essary for the reestablishment of peace in Mexico.

TWO OR THREE LIVES LOST IN HOUSTON

And Damage Estimated at $5,000,000 Caused by Storm.

Temple, Texas, Aug 18—Two or three lives have been lost in Houston as the result of the storm and the damage was estimated at $5,000,000 there last night, according to the conductor of an Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe freight train which passed through here tonight. Private Audience to Greek Minister

Geneva, Aug. 17. via Paris, 2:52 p. m.—The Tribune prints the following under a Bucharest, Rumania date.line: "King Ferdinand yesterday gave a long private audience tothe Greek minister who is a member of the party headed by Eleutherios Venizelog."

Bulgaria plans to convert much of the territory acquired from Turkey into a yast tobacco field.

Jumped From Auto---Fractured Skull

Miss May O'Connor, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Connor of 115 High Street, Was in Machine With Miss Kearns of High Street and Two Willimantic Young Men-Happened on North Main Street Near Reliance Mill at 11 O'Clock-Priest Gave Last Sacrament Before Girl Was Taken to Hospital.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

of Mrs. Lewis A. Andrews for Happy

About 25 friends gathered at the

About 2s friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Lewis A. Andrews on Monday night having been invited by Mrs. Fred Shea of Seventh street to come and surprise Miss Lydia Lanole by giving her a miscellaneous shower honor of her approaching marriage, given her.

A clothesline had been put up in the room and as soon as she had taken and Mrs. L. Andrews.

The whole affair was arranged by Mrs. Fred Shea, who piedged those in-way.

The guests departed wishing Miss Lanole a happy married life.

SHOWER FOR MISS WALSH.

Friends Bestowed Linen Upon Young

AUTOMOBILIST ARRESTED.

Man Who Ran Into Samuel Silver-

Poor Pal

prominent member.

On North Main street, near the former Reliance Worsted Mill corner, a serious and perhaps fatal accident took place Tuesday night shortly before 11 o'clock, when Miss May O'Connor jumped from an automobile in which she was riding with another Norwich young woman and two young men who were said to be from Willimantic. Miss O'Connor landed in the street on her head and was rendered unconscious. The young woman there.

Complete examination at the hospital conformed the indications of a fracture of the skull at the base.

Miss O'Connor's condition was so alarming that before being taken from where the hospital conformed the indications of a fracture of the skull at the base.

Miss O'Connor's condition was so alarming that before being taken from where the accident occurred, Dr. Callahau went after Rev. F. J. Kuster and the priest administered the last sacrament to the young woman there.

Details of the accident were lacking rendered unconscious. The young wight. rendered unconscious. The young man who was driving the automo-bile stopped short and went back, and the girl was picked up and carried in-to a nearby house, that of Mrs. Delia Connell, at No. 100 North Main street. Doctors were summoned and Dr. N. B. Lewis came and he was followed in a short time by Dr. J. W. Callahan. The medical men found that Callahan. The medical men found that the girl was bleeding from her ears and was in a dazed condition and all the signs and symptoms pointed to a fracture of the skull. The Backus hospital ambulance was summoned and Miss O'Connor was rushed to the hospital at a quarter before midnight.

Dr. P. J. Cossida went un later and with Dr. P. J. Cassidy went up later and with Later they went to take the girl's R. P. Street, the interne, and Dr. Paul morner to the hospital. Why the young R. P. Street, the interne, and Dr. Paul morner to the hospital. Why the young Gadle, who is assisting him, did what woman jumped out of the moving aucould be done. The young woman was tomobile when she did is only to be in a serious condition and the more inferred from what could be learned.

TWO AUTOS AND WAGON

IN PRESTON MIX-UP Mrs. Louis Segee Slightly Injured in an Unavoidable Collision in Preston Monday Morning.

Two automobiles and a wagon figured in a mixup in front of the residence of James Henry Fitch in Preston about 10.38 o'clock Monday morning, resulting in slight injuries to Mrs.

Louis Segee. Mrs. Segee, with her son John, was on her way to Norwich with a wagon-load of farm produce and had stopped for a few minutes in front of the Fitch residence. While the wagon was standing in the middle of the road Ray Button of Glasgo, Norwich-bound, in his auto and Attorney Charles W. Comstock, accompanied by Allyn L. Brown of this city and Chauffeur James Austin, bound for Voluntown, arrived at the curve in the road at the same moment. Mr. Austin drove his car far to the right to avoid hitting the wagon and the only alternative of Mr. Button was to turn to his right or else collide with Mr. Comstock's car. Mr. Button's machine demclished one of the rear wheels of the wagon, throw-ing Mrs. Segee around with consid-erable force so that she suffered from shock, bruises on her head, side her hip and ankle. She was not seriously injured. Her son John jumped and escaped injury. Mr. Comstock and party drove on after finding that Mr. Button was caring for Mrs. Segee's property to this injuries. She was brought to this city and received medical aid. The accident was unavoidable, it was $2340 FOR MRS. GORTON. Agreement on Second Day of Hearing in East Lyme Case.

The hearing on the claim of Bessie A. Gorton of East Lyme, administra-trix of the estate of her husband, Orrin B. Gorton against Robert B. Gorton, administrator of the estate Gorton, administration of Luce of East Lyme, was of James V. Luce of East Lyme, was concluded before Compensation Com-shower at the home of Miss Cora St. Germain in Montville, by members of the Alphana club of which she is a on Tuesday. The hearing was started

Monday, Frank Gorton and Edward Luce were the only witnesses examined on Tuesday, the hearing occupying a short time. At the conclusion of the hearing the agreement reached between the two parties for compensaof $7.50 a week for 312 weeks was granted by the commissioner and the amount commuted into a lump sum

Mr. Gortor was at work on a well Mr. Gortor was at work on a went at Crescent Beach and had been using gasoline which leaked into a well. The gasoline appeared on the surface of the water and Gorton lighted a match to burn it off. Mr. Gorton was seriously burned and his death oc-curred at the Memorial hospital two or three days later. Other matters heard were: Other matters heard were:

The claim of Alfred Allard of Putnam against the New Haven road, for injuries received at Pascoas, R. I., to his hip. H. M. French, the new claim agent for the railroad company appeared.

The claim of George P. Cheney of Hopeless.

Chicago had a "better babies" week, But how can a baby hope to be any better if it has grown up in Chicago? —Boston Advertiser.

DR. CLARENCE D. USSHER

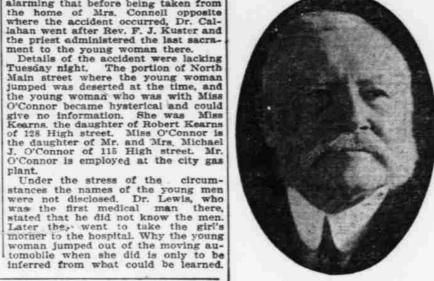

MRS. CLARENCE D. USSHER

OBITUARY.

Waterman Rufus Burnham Waterman Rufus Burnham, one of the best known citizens of this city, and who for the past 15 years led a retired life after a successful business career, died at his home, No. 362 Main street, on Tuesday afternoon at 5

Three months ago, Mr. Burnham broke one of the bones of his leg, which confined him to his bed for several weeks. He recovered from this and was able to walk about the house, and was able to walk about the house, but his confinement brought on an aggravated form of a stomach trouble from which he had formerly suffered and from this attack he had largely recovered, when ten days ago he suffered a severe attack of bronchitis. His strength had been so reduced by his confinement that he was in poor condition to withstand this attack. It brought a severe strain woon an albrought a severe strain upon an al ready weakened heart. Yet his condi tion was fairly promising until Tues-day, when his heart failed to do its FOR MISS LYDIA LANOIE Twenty-five Friends Gathered at Home

WATERMAN R. BURNHAM

Waterman Rufus Burnham was born

December 4, 1831 in Windham, and attended the district school and the village school kept at Wirdham Center, by Miss Jane Fuller and others. He later attended the Connecticut Literary Institute at Suffield. After completing his schooling he entered the drug store of Col. Samuel Tyler in this city, as clerk, remaining there four years. Then, in company with F. M. Lincoln, his brother-in-law, he pur-All arrived early and shortly after o'clock Miss Lanole was sent for on chased the drug store conducted by Edward Moulton in Willimantic and some pretense by her sister, Mrs. Lewis A. Andrews and when she ar-rived she was taken to the parlor which had been left dimly lighted and under the name of Burnham & Lincoln engaged in business there. He later purchased his partner's interest and conducted the business alone for a time. In 1855 Mr. Burnham disposed of the drug store and became connectwhere those present had gathered to shower her with many handsome and useful articles.

Miss Lanoie was so surprised that speech failed her for a few minutes, but as soon as she could realize what it all meant she heartly thanked all present for the agreeable surprise that the speech for the agreeable surprise in the speech for t assistant treasurer and finally treas-urer. He was serving in this position when he retired in 1897 after a term of service with that period of 42 years. with that firm covering a in her "washing" her friends proceed-ed to make merry and enjoyed them-selves immensely. During the evening Mr. Burnham was married, Dec. 25, 1853, to Miss Julia A. Wood, daugh-ter of Willet R. and Julia A. Reed Wood. Mr. and Mrs. Burnham had refreshments were served by Mrs. Andrews, assisted by Mrs. Fred Shea, Mrs. Felix Richotte, Mrs. N. Lanoie Mrs. Felix Richotte, Mrs. N. Lanoie and Mrs. L. Andrews.

The whole affair was arranged by Mrs. Fred Shea, who piedged those invited to the utmost secrecy and it certainly proved a success in every way.

The guests departed wishing Miss Lanoie a happy married life.

Wood. Mr. and Mrs. Burnham had one son, William, who died at the age of three months. Mrs. Burnham had one son, William, who died at the age of three months. Mrs. Burnham had one son, William, who died at the age of three months. Mrs. Burnham had one son, William, who died at the age of three months. Mrs. Burnham had one son, William, who died at the age of three months. Mrs. Burnham had one son, William, who died at the age of three months. Mrs. Burnham had one son, William, who died at the age of three months. Mrs. Burnham was united in marriage Dec. 4, 1883, with Mrs. Ella A. Bradford, a daughter of Rev. E. B. Bradford, a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church at Hyde Park, Mass. Two children were born to them, Har-old, who died in infancy, and Rufus Bradford, at present located in Buffalo, N. Y.

In his political views Mr. Burnham Lady Who Will Marry Norwich Man.

Was a republican and was called to many positions of honor and trust during his residence in Uncasville. In 1862 he represented the town of Monton to be the bride of William Mc-ahon of Norwich, was given a linen will be represented the fown of Mont-about the legislature. He also served as chairman of the board of relief in Germain in Montville, by members of the Alphena club of which she is a prominent member. She received nany beautiful linen pieces with learty congratulations. The dining building of the present schoolhouse at Uncasville. Mr. Burnham attended the oom was prettily decorated in red Congregational church at Windham, and white crepe paper, and an elaborate supper was served by the hostess after which the evening was elaborate supper was served by the hostess, after which the evening was pleasantly spent with games, vocal and instrumental solos. Several fine pieces of linen were sent by her many friends who were unable to attend.

Those present were: The Misses Addie, Ida and Lillian Morin, Ruth die, Ida and Lillian Morin, Ruth construction. When the diffice committee, when the ediffice, which was a much more elaborate one than was thought. When the edifice, which was a much more elaborate one than was though Agnes and Helen Driscoil, Misses Addie, Ida and Lillian Morin, Ruth Cralg, Mae Quinn, Mrs. Charles Kolb, Alexzena Brouillard, Arizella and Nellie Brouillard, Mae and Anna Walsh and Eva and Cora St. Germain. possible to have, was dedicated, 1 was entirely free from debt.

His interest and activity in church work by no means ended with this, as, in addition to being one of its mainstays, he took a foremost part in its Man Who Ran Into Samuel Silver-berg on May 15, Apprehended by During his residence in Norwich he Constable Blumenthal.

Was active in the affairs of the Broadway Congregational church. He served as superintendent of the Sunday persistent investigation by Constable school for years and was also a deacon Myer Blumenthal, Peter John, a Greek, in the church. The claim of George P. Cheney of New London for a medical bill for services rendered Mrs. Oscar Greenenwald of 110 Parkway, New London. Stefanio Pishitello, an employe, injured his right index finger which was followed by an infection. A stone fell on the finger.

The claim of Frank Alli against the Edward Chappell company for injury to his knee Jan. 26.

The claim of Paul Coginsky, employed by the Undine Twine mills in Moodus for injury received May 1. claiming the entire loss of the first, second and third ingers on his left hand.

The claim of George P. Cheney of New London of New London and there were internal injuries. The autoist disappeared, and Constable Myer Blumenthal, Peter John, a Greek, was lodged in the county jail on Tuesday with running his automobile without warning into Samuel Silverberg on the road between Bozrah and Norwich on May 15th. Silverberg was knocked unconscious, Dr. Tingley was called, he was taken to the Fackus hospital, and there it was found that two ribs were brokable Blumenthal had a hard job finding him. Attorney R. M. Douglas issued a body attachment Tuesday and he will be presented before F. H. Brown on Aug. 23.

Brown on Aug. 23.

The claim of Frank Alli against the Edward Chappell company for injury to his knee Jan. 26.

The claim of Paul Coginsky, employed by the Undine Twine mills in Moodus for injury received May 1. claiming the entire loss of the first, second and third ingers on his left hand.

Brown on Aug. 23.

Brown on Aug. 24.

Brown on Aug. 23.

Brown on Aug. 24.

Brown on Aug. 25.

Brown on Aug. 25.

Brown on Aug. 26.

Brown on Aug. 27.

Brown on Aug.

was a corporate member of the Amer-ican Board of Commissioners of For-It is announced that gowns will but-ton up the back next year, thus sav-ing a pew lease of life to a well-worn wheeze.—Birmingham Age-Herald. eign Missions; a corporate member of the Connecticut Bible society; was the first president of the Norwich Young Men's Christian association, serving in that capacity for five years; was one of the oldest members of the state Y. M. C. A. committee and for years was the state corresponding member of the International Y. M. C. A. committee and a corporator of the Normittee and a corporator of the Normittee and a corporator of the Normittee and a corporator. mittee and a corporator of the Nor-wich Free Academy. When the Nor-wich City Mission, an organization now under the auspices of the United Workers, was in existence, he served as its president for several years. as its president for several years.

In business circles Mr. Burnham was equally well known. He was vice president and one of the directors of the Dime Savings bank, a director of the Thames National bank, and when the Second National bank was in existence he served as one of its directors for some years. For some time he was a director of the New London Fire Indirector of the New London Fire Insurance company and at one time held membership in the New England Cotton Manufacturing association, the Home Market club, and at the time of his death held members in the Board of Trade of this city and the Arcanum club.

Mr. Burnham is survived by his wife, one son, Rufus Bradford, of Buffalo, a niece, Mrs. M. E. Lincoln of Willi-mantic and a nephew, R. W. Burnham of Los Angeles, Cal.

As a conductor of Sunday school institutes, and a leader of conventions throughout the state, as a presiding officer and as a practical and earnest Mrs. Clarence D. Ussher is reported and go to Tiffis.

Dr. Ussher is reported seriously ill at Tiffis, Mrs. Ussher was Elizabeth Barrows, daughter of Rev. and Mrs.

outbreak of typhus fever to leave the John O. Barrows of Norwich Town.

Norwich Merchants contemplating doing any advertising in The Bulletin in connection with DOLLAR DAY will confer a favor by sending their advertising to The Bulletin Office as soon as possible.

The Bulletin Co.

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors and Embalmers

337 MAIN STREET Oppsaite Post Office.

'Phone 321-2 Lady Assistant and extensive connection with such ocieties. As a citizen none in the city enjoye to any greater extent the respect and high esteem of all who knew him. A man of the strictest integrity he had to an unusual degree the confidence of his business and social acquaintances. He possessed a very wide circle of friends and in business and social life was always a prominent figure. In his long and useful life the work wihon stands out most prominently is that done in religious and charamble bodies, a work that was to him meet pleasant and marked by zeal and sincerity.

Frederick R. Bailey. Frederick R. Bailey, 42 years of age, died at his home on Salem street, near the Congregational church in Salem on Tuesday afternoon, after an illness of about 10 weeks duration. He was the son of Robert A. Bailey, a native of Preston and Susan Prentice Bailey, a native of North Stonington. Mr. Bailey was born in Stonington on August 24, 1872. With the exception of three years' residence in Yantic, all of his life was passed in Salem. For some time he was employed on the Mitchell farms. He leaves besides his parents, who reside in Salem, his wife and three children, all of Salem. His wife was the daughter of Rev. Mr. Siegfried. E. A. Prentice of this city is a cousin.

Incidents in Society

Alfred P. Alien of Huntington places spending a week at Block Island.

Mrs. Lucius Briggs and daughter Marion of Broadway have been guests of friends in Yonkers, N. Y. Miss Mazle V. Caruthers of McKiney avenue has been the guest of Mrs, Frank Bruce, at her cottage at Pieas-

A. Prentice Chase of Otis street has returned from a six weeks' stay 'at Ithaca, N. Y., where he attenued the summer school at Cornell university.

Mrs. J. Dana Coit and daughter

Frances of Rockwell street have been guests of Mrs. John L. Mitchell, who is spending the summer near South Bristol, Me. Mrs. Lewis H. Hyde, who is spending the summer at Deacon L. Hyde's on Washington street, is rning with her children this week rom a stay at Fisher's Island. Word received from Miss Margaret B. Rudd of Woodside, states that she is in the Canadian Rockies, on her way home from the exposition, and a fine tour of the Pacific coast. The party will reach here next week. Movement of Steamships.

New York, Aug. 17—Arrived: steam-ers La Touraine, Bordeaux. Barcelona, Aug. 17—Arrived: steam-er Roma, New York and Providence. Giasgow, Aug. 16.—Arrived: steamers Cameronia, New York; Carthaginian, Montreal.

Last Excursion Newport

Thursday Aug. 19th

Train leaves Norwich, 8.10 a.m. for New London, where passengers will transfer to New London Line steamer City of Lowell, due Newport 1.30 p. m. $1.00 ROUND $1.00

Number of Tickets Strictly Limited No tickets sold on morning of ex-cursion if limit is previously reached

The New York, New Haven & Hartford Railread

DR. A. J. SINAY Dentist

Rooms 18-19 Alice Building, Norwich Phone 1177-3

STETSON & YOUNG, Carpenters and Builders Best work and materials at right prices by skilled labor.
Telephone. 50 WEST MAIN ST.

THE DEL-HOFF

European Plan Rates 75 cents per day and up. HAYES BROTHERS. Telephone 1227. 26-28 Broadway